

Bristol Safeguarding
Children Board

making safeguarding everybody's business

Annual Safeguarding Children Conference 2018 Violence within Families: What can Bristol do to break the cycle of abuse?

Date:	Wednesday 23 rd May 2018, 09.30 – 16.30
Venue:	M Shed, Princes Wharf, Wapping Road, Bristol, BS1 4RN
Cost:	£90pp (all agencies – no funded places)

Objectives:

- To describe the link between Adverse Childhood Experiences and violence in adulthood
- To Identify evidence based models of effective practice when working with violence within families
- To Identify the role of early years in identifying, responding to and preventing violence within families
- How can we help practitioners to understand the needs of boys and men in families where there is violence
- To increase practitioner's confidence in involving men in safeguarding of families

Gavin Swann, Kent CC: Breaking down Barriers - Involving Fathers in Social Care Interventions

Cherryl Henry-Leach, Safeguarding Consultant: Effective Practice when working with violence within families

Mandy Stirling/Nancy Shelton, CAMHS infant mental health specialists: responding to and preventing violence within families in the early years.

To book a place please complete the conference booking form available on our website (<https://bristolsafeguarding.org/children-home/training/>) and email it to bscb.safeguarding.training@bristol.gov.uk Please make sure you have agreed funding with your manager/organisation before applying and have supplied the exact address for invoicing on your application.